23 July 2020

NaturVision Audience Award goes to Der Bär in mir and NaturVision Film Music Award to Im Reich der Wolga

On Thursday evening, 23 July 2020, the final mini award ceremony of the NaturVision Film Festival saw the last two outstanding awards announced.

Once all the votes had been counted, the viewers' favourite film was revealed as Der Bär in mir by Roman Droux. This wins him the popular NaturVision Audience Award worth 1,000 euros, sponsored this year by Bund der Selbständigen Ludwigsburg.

The NaturVision Film Music Award, also worth 1,000 euros, (sponsored by NaturVision Förderverein) went to the production Im Reich der Wolga – ein Strom wird zum Meer, music by Oliver Heuss. The jury was impressed by the distinct, poetic composition, which still accompanies the film perfectly: "The quirks of the film are perfectly and lovingly carved out down to the smallest detail, and sometimes with subtle humour. The score is dramatically and musically excellent, scenically applied with virtuosity alongside the animal figures and the impressive landscape, and authentically produced with impressively high quality."

The winning films, along with all the other productions, can still be streamed via the NaturVision website until midnight on 23 July. <https://natur-vision.de/de/festival/alle-filme/>
